A New Way to Discover Mesa Verde!

Durango, Colo. - Mild to Wild Rafting and Jeep Trail Tours, Inc. is excited to announce guided "Mesa Verde Discovery" Tours. Bring history to life on this small group, guided interpretive tours. Explore the ancient cliff dwellings of Mesa Verde National Park, the largest cliff dwellings remaining in North America and one of only 20 World Heritage sites in the United States.

Tours are round trip, daily from Durango to Mesa Verde starting December 2nd, 2013. Departure time is 8:45 am with a return of 5 pm. The eight hour tours is $119 per adult and $89 per child.

"Mesa Verde is so rich in history, culture and educational information and we are so excited to be able to offer an in depth interpretive tour," said Alex Mickel, owner of Mild to Wild Rafting & Jeep Trail Tours. "It is a natural addition to our 77 trip offerings allowing us to share just one more of the treasures of the Southwest."

Enjoy a fascinating journey through time while you explore this major center for Puebloan culture and architecture that thrived more than 800 years ago. Experience the intriguing cliff dwellings and the remnants and clues of a life long ago that have been left behind for you to discover today!

Mild to Wild Rafting and Jeep Trail Tours, Inc. offers the biggest selection of outdoor adventures including whitewater rafting, inflatable kayaking, stand up paddle boarding, jeep trail tours, packages with the Durango train and Mesa Verde tours. Mild to Wild is proud to share the best of the Southwest and it's adventures, history and culture.
